2 Cents Worth:

The Seldovia Chamber of Commerce voted to host a Chainsaw Carving Competition and will invite 6-7 carvers to come for a 4 day competition. The tentative date is Memorial Day weekend. The SNA is donating the logs, the Webbers are donating transportation across the bay for the carvers and their equipment. It is in the early stages of planning, but we hope to make this a very interesting and fun event for everyone. Our local great chainsaw carver, Toby Craft, and his wife, Elaine, are chairing the project. This weeks question:

What do you think about the Seldovia Chamber of Commerce's new event, the Chainsaw Carving Competition?

"That would be cool."

Dustin Baines

"I think we need another summer event."

Rod Hilts

"I think it would be great and a good start to the season."

Darlene Crawford

"I would enter if it's not against a pro....It would be fun."

Peggy Clonninger

Letters to the Editor

The Seldovia Gazette values freedom of speech. We welcome original, insightful letters from our readers on issues that are of concern to them. However, due to space considerations, please limit letters to 300 words. We also reserve the right to edit all letters for clarity, grammar, and taste. Letters must be signed and submitted by Tuesday at 5 pm in order to be printed in that week's press. We accept letters submitted by one of three ways: by email at tomg@seldovia.com, by fax at 907-234-7526, or by mail at Seldovia Gazette, P.O. Box 97, Seldovia, Alaska 99663.

Back in the Saddle Again! Thanks to all of you, I am riding again. >Repeat letter<

Dear Friends and neighbors,

Thanks.

The amount of support that I have received from Seldovia since the time of my injury is remarkable. It is the type of response that I have come to expect from my hometown. People often speak of community, but the willingness to help and the generosity that I have experienced feels much more akin to that of an extended family.

Thank you again,

Daewon Mickelson

P.S. The "Back in the Saddle Again" benefit auction in Durango was a great success. Thanks to all of you for your contributions. My ride is a tribute to you all.
