School News

The Battle of the Books teams have started practicing for the Battle of the Books competition, which will be held in February.

High School Basketball

	Coach Damara Lorentz	Coach Russ Radliff	Assistant Coach Timothy Winters

The girls' team lost both of their games on the 6th and 7th. They lost to ACS 69 to 48 and to Lumen 69 to 39. However, at the beginning of the 4th quarter in both games the Otters were only down by 6 points, but the teams small size really hurt them. At ACS the girls had 7 to start with but then Emily got hurt and then Jen and Stephanie fouled out. At the game at Lumen the girls only had 6 players. During the game at ASC Naomi racked up 20 points and Kate pulled in 15. Then at Lumen Jen brought home 10 points and 10 rebounds, and Naomi scored 22 points and got 15 rebounds. Damara said that, "if the team can stay healthy I think they'll be competitive. Because they're tough and smart and because they work hard."

The boys' team won both of their games on the 6th and 7th. They beat ACS 56 to 55 and Lumen 54 to 33. Colton, the highest scorer in the (Lumen game), pulled in 24 points, and Evan, the game's second highest scorer, racked up 17 points. Way to go guys.

There will be no Basketball games this weekend.
