Letters to the Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

i would love to bring my wife and daughter to the lumberjack dinner, but let me see, that would add up to $105.a little steep, dont you think? we are not all in the same tax bracket, or the same time zone here.trying to raise some money? how about a spagehetti dinner for $20 a family, the place would be packed and the profit margin higher, not to mention the good feeling that nobody was left out.think of all the kids that would have enjoyed the play.

the response to the: "price of the food was expensive and we have to cover our costs"? please refer to previous paragraph. and last, but not least, about the quote in the news,

" one member from a family could attend if the price for a couple was too much of a hardship". yeah right. "sorry dear, you stay home while i go eat steak, just wouldnt go over to well at my house."

think ill cook up some spagehetti tonite..

please print in your nice publication.

kind regards, buck brown
