Scott Hanson - Visiting Chain Saw Artist! by Mary Glover

Scott Hanson has been carving since 1990 and full time since 1997. He started the business outside of Soldotna, maybe you have seen it while traveling up the Sterling Highway on your way to Anchorage? It is the "Town of Living Trees." Scott has an abundance of beautiful carvings at this location. One in particular is his Great Alaskan Carousel, pictured at the left.

Scott's Carousel - the First in Alaska!

Scott is one of the Carvers who will be carving this week during the Seldovia Chainsaw Contest. His assistant's name is "Sandra Bullock." (I don't think I'm saying anymore! I'm sure she gets enough questions.) It should be spectacular to watch him carve, together with all the other professional carvers. Seldovians we are in for a very big treat! Having heard them talk about their experiences, I have just begun to appreciate the talent we have in our town at this time!
