A Letter to the Editor

As an avid observer of the Seldovia website and someone who enjoys the sneak peeks, which most of the time has beautiful scenes, I cannot fathom why the Husky II was featured. That is about the ugliest ship I have ever seen. I can't imagine letting it into the harbor, let alone put a picture of it on the web site. I can only hope that it will soon be gone and the harbor is once again the beautiful place that it normally is. My sincere condolences to whomever owns it. My advice would be to sink it and make a reef for the sea life.

Pat Terhune
Winthrop, WA

[Editors Note: The Husky II owner was given notice last year to remove the boat from the harbor. To date, the City has been unable to get the owner to comply. Although the HarborCam2 view is currently somewhat "blemished", it still provides the owners of other boats with a partial view of their own boats - which is one of the primary purposes of the HarborCams. The lens currently used on HarborCam2 is too wide angle and will be changed later this summer to provide a tighter view of the harbor and boats.]
