Bump, Set, Start!

Bump, set, spike; the volleyball season is heating up! The Seldovia Sea Otter Volleyball Team played at their first tournament October 6th and 7th, at Kenny Lake High School. The competitors at the tourney were; the Glenallen Panthers, the Kenny Lake Hawks, the Ninilchik Wolverines, the Seldovia Sea Otters, and the Tok Wolverines. The games that Seldovia's team played all counted for the regional seatings in our region except the game against the Glenallen team; they are a 3A team.

The first game the Sea Otter team played was against Kenny Lake. This was a big game due to the fact that the Kenny Lake Hawks were undefeated for the last two years. This winning streak ended when the Sea Otters showed up ready to play. The Sea Otters won 25 to 12 both games of the match. This really got our blood flowing and our confidence a big boost, which showed in our next game that same day against Ninilchik.

Seldovia vs. Ninilchik; these two teams are rivals on the court, but friends off the court. Both teams came out and played their hearts out. The Sea Otters came and showed off winning the first game of the match 25 to 15 and the second 26 to 28.

Saturday the Sea Otters played in the first game of the day against the Tok, in which the Sea Otters won one of the three games and Tok won two of the three games. The final scores were; first game 25-15 Seldovia, 18-25 Tok, 26-28 Tok.

The last game for the Sea Otters' was against the 3A team the Glenallen Panthers. In this game the Sea Otters went out and played their best. It was a challenge to play the 3A Panthers against the 1A Sea Otters. The final scores of the games were; 23 to 25 Glenallen and the second game was 14 to 25 Glenallen.

At the awards ceremony, Captains Molly Chapman and Naomi Gallien, made the all tourney team. The team leaves Friday October 13th for the Ninilchik tournament. In a quote from Courtney Collier when asked how she thinks the team will do she replied "Seldovia's gonna do great, we have an awesome team!! We are going to kick butt!"
