SBE Victory on the Home Court!

by Katie O'Leary

On Saturday January 27th, 2007 the Sea Otter girls' and boys' teams played the Lumen Christi Archangels. During the 2006 season the girls' team lost to Lumen by about fifteen or twenty points. The closest game was the one they played during the Regional conference and was lost only by eight points. This year the Sea Otter Girls' played Lumen and won with approximately seven point lead. This was the first of the three regional seeding games the team has won thus far.

The boys' game directly followed the girls' in both time and score. The boys' score was very similar to the girls' and it was also the boys' first win of their three seeding games. Though the boys' team was victorious over the Lumen boys' in every game they played, this win was very important to the boys' morale and teamwork.

The team will be traveling to Cook Inlet Academy and Homer High School. The schedule is: Friday the teams will leave school at 1:15 p.m. and leave the harbor at 1:30 p.m. The girls will play C.I.A at 6:00 p.m. Friday night. The boys' game will be immediately after. The team will stay at C.I.A, and then travel back to Homer to play the Homer High junior varsity team. After playing the Homer J.V. team, the Sea Otters will travel home late Saturday afternoon
