Girls First, Boys Second

The Sea Otter Girls went, watched, and conquered at the Lumen Christi 1st annual Invitational, held on the last weekend of February. The boys' team did marvelous as well, taking second place, losing only to the Bristol Bay Angels. The tournament started off with the Nikolaevsk Warriors Girls and Boys playing the Angels Boys and Girls. The Lady Warriors won their game, but the Angels took the boys' game. Next, your one and only Seldovia Sea Otters played the hosting team the Lumen Christi Archangels. The Sea Otter girls played with heart and won the game 52-49. The Sea Otter Boys also had their first victory of the tourney beating the boy Archangels.

Friday, the teams had the entire morning to relax and hangout in our donated rooms, graciously given to us by the Dimond Center Hotel. After resting, the team met up to prepare for our games against the Angels. Upon arriving, the girls' team suited up to warm up for their match against the Lady Angels. The Otter Girls went out fired up and ready to sweep the floor. In the end Sea Otters won 63-25. The boys on the other hand, had a tougher opponent ahead and lost the game by sixteen with a final score of 44-60.

Last game, last chance to play region seeding games before the regional conference. The girls are warming up at 9:30 am on Saturday, preparing to clobber the Warriors. The game starts; the air is not so tense. This is high school ball not the NBA championship! Sure, both teams want to win, but this was Nikolaevsk, our neighbors. The game was fun and it did help that we beat them 40-23! The boys' played their final game immediately after the girls. They took their last game with a final score of 45-39.

Throughout the tourney, there were other competitions besides the actual games. During the halftime of each game there was a three-point shooting contest and a foul shot contest. Representing the Sea Otter Boys for the foul shot contest was "KC" Chissus, and for the three-point contest was Darin Baines. For the girls Courtney Collier not only represented them, but as a freshman won the three-point contest, making nine three-pointers in one minute! Okay, she tied for first but it was still awesome. Senior Jen Giles also represented the Sea Otter girls in the foul shot contest. She made eighteen out of twenty foul shots; that's 90%! Both girls received an award during the awards ceremony.

The final placing for the 1 st annual Lumen Christi Invitational in the girls' bracket was; first place, Seldovia Sea Otters; second, Lumen Christi Archangels; third, the Nikolaevsk Warriors; and last was the sportsmanship award for the Bristol Bay Angels.

Now, the boys' bracket; first place, Bristol Bay Angels; second, the Seldovia Sea Otters; third, the Lumen Christi Archangels; and last, but not least, the winners of the boys' sportsmanship award went to the Nikolaevsk Warriors.

Next week on the 7-9 th of March the Seldovia Sea Otters will be hosting the 2007 Regional Conference in Homer. The Sea Otter Girls' first game will be at 4:45 on Wednesday against the Bristol Bay Angels. The boys will play immediately after playing the Lumen Christi Archangels. The first and second place winners at the Regional Conference Tourney will represent our conference at the 2A State Conference, held over spring break.

State Geography Bee Competition TBA on March 30.
