Susan B English School News

SBE Report by Katie O'Leary

SBE School Beat by Tamara Blodgett

Almost Over

2 WEEKS! And there is very little excitement going on at Susan B. English School. The classes for high school are each preparing for finals and every student and teacher at that school is counting down the days. The last sport season, track and field, is coming to an end. The junior high team will be attending the last competition for the season and the high school team will be competing for the next two weekends. The close-up group left for Washington D.C. last Friday and will be returning Sunday the 13th of May.

Junior high and high school track and field teams will be going to Skyview High School in Soldotna to compete in the Borough's meet. Then, next weekend the high school team will be traveling up to Fairbanks, Alaska (over a ten- hour trip) to attend the Region II Track and Field Meet. The junior high team is seventh graders Amanda Gain and Mariah Turner. The high school team consists of junior Tim O'Leary and freshman Derek Burt.

The close-up group is six of the high school students who attended a week long "camp" where students from around the country travel to Washington D.C. and learn about the U.S. Government and what it means to be a U.S. Citizen. Throughout their stay students will visit national monuments and memorials. During the week, the students will have one day to visit with their states senator(s) and representative. On Friday, the students will have a "free day" when they can go where they want in Washington D.C. (with their
