Letters to the Editor

Term Limits . . . a Bad Idea

Dear Editor:

I agree totally with Darlene Crawford's letter to the editor about Term Limits for School Board. It is us, the people of Seldovia, who vote for our school board representative. It should be by majority vote with NO term limits. If the representative has not been representing our children and schools adequately, we would vote that person out. If they are doing a good job for our children, our vote would be favorable for that person. And Darlene Crawford is right, Sunni (Edith-Helen) Hilts has been a very good representative for all the schools in the district. In these tight times for funding and education, Sunni (Edith-Helen) Hilts, has tried to keep our children's education the primary concern above all else. I hope we can keep Sunni as our School Board representative.

School Reporters are doing a great job!

Dear Editor:

I think Rochele Purpura and Katie O'Leary are doing a wonderful job reporting for Susan B. English School . . Keep up the good work! More pictures, please!
