PHEW!

I have exciting news to report on from our last trip to Tok! We took second place at the Tok Round Robin! The weekend before that, we won two of our four games at Cook Inlet Academy's Tournament.

Our volleyball team left home on Wednesday, October 17th, to start our way up the long road to Tok, Alaska. Due to having left before normal practice time, the team made a pit stop at Nikolaevsk. We were able to schedule a scrimmage with the Nikolaevsk to keep us up 'on our game.' After spending the night at Ninilchik School, we headed out with two other teams, which began our excruciating 12- hour bus trip to Tok. We shared a bus with Ninilchik and CIA teams'.

Friday morning came, just a little too early. The teams were required to be out of the rooms by 8 a.m. The competition began at nine in the morning, with eight teams in the bracket. Seldovia did not have their first game scheduled until 3 o'clock (we were very thankful that we did not have first game) Friday afternoon, so the team took some time and worked "as a team" to get homework off their mind After study time and lunch, the team warmed up for our first game against the Kenny Lake Hawks. Seldovia won that match with dignity, and remained hyped up for the next with CIA. Again, the team took the match with another victory.

Tok's after school program sponsored a bonfire that night, complete with local fire fighters to make sure things didn't heat up too much! This gave teams something to occupy their time with that was fun and exhilarating.

Saturday brought our first match with Tok's varsity team, which was watched by the not-so- sportsman-like crowd. After their victory, Seldovia had about 15 minutes to catch their breath before the next match with Delta JV. Delta is a 3A school with a great deal of talent, but the Otters prevailed in a 3/5 match. This hard earned win put us in the championship match against, you guessed it, Tok varsity!

The Tok team came on strong, and after a valiant effort, the Otters lost the match, placing second in the tournament. The awards followed directly after. The Ninilchik Wolverines placed third, Seldovia second, and Tok first. Katie O'Leary was voted 'All Tourney Team.'

Throughout the tournament there was 'Player of the Game Awards.' The following lift corresponds with the games in chronological order Katie O'Leary, Courtney Collier, and Kristy Gallien.

The tired group again got on a bus and traveled to Palmer, where they slept for a few hours before finishing the trip to Homer on Sunday. These long trips make for tired players and lots of homework! It takes stamina and dedication to play sports, and our athletes meet the challenge! Thanks to all the parents and families that make our trips possible, and are there when we come home. The Otters can't do it without your support.

The weekend of October 12th/13th, the Sea Otter Volleyball team participated in the CIA Tournament. The team lost against Unalaska, beat Tri-Valley, lost to Ninilchik, and beat Nenana. Katie O'Leary made the 'All Tourney Team.'

The Otters' will be participating in the Nikolaevsk Tourney on October 25th- 27th. Our first game is at 5 p.m. against Unalaska. (We plan on taking revenge for when they beat us)! There is a complete schedule at the school or visit edline.net.
