More Reynolds are in town!

by Mary Glover

The holidays bring visitors to town, but in this case it is not the holidays that brought Shaun and Tawny Reynolds back. They came to visit Shaun's parents, Doc Larry and Cheryl Reynolds. Shaun and Tawny have been living in Littleton, Colorado where they owned and operated a coin laundry business since the inception of their marriage in August, 2005. They have sold the business and now are moving back to Minneapolis, Minnesota where both of them attended Carlton University. Shaun graduated with a degree in computer technology. Tawny obtained a PhD in the field of paleontology (the science of the forms of life existing in former geologic periods, as represented by their fossils) from the University of Michigan. Since their marriage, Tawny said, "I did a summer dig in Wyoming" where the focus was animal vertebral morphology. However, Tawny also is involved in their other business, the Sundrop jewelry. Shaun and Bret ("Hig"), who is Dede Higman and Higgy's son, started the Sundrop business together some years ago and now their spouses, Tawny and Erin, are much involved. Visit their interesting web site The Sundrop jewelry is on sale at one of the local merchant's store, the Herringbay Mercantile in Seldovia. Shaun grew up in Seldovia. In fact, his infancy and toddler Orebillo, and Eloise Kincaid (Margaret McInnis' mother). Shaun took an early interest in computers. To his credit is the making of Seldovia's first web site. At the time, Shaun was in the 9th grade and he made a proposal to the Seldovia Chamber of Commerce to put up a web site for the Chamber on the internet. This era was the advent of the web with Netscape. Shaun said he wrote it in "very basic html", but that was quite an accomplishment for a young man.

A few people from this area might know Tawny because she is from Homer. Her dad is Rep. Paul Seaton (whom we all know) and her mom is Tina. She said, "My dad is going to Juneau soon" as it is the time of year again.

Moving to Minneapolis brought some reflective thoughts from Tawny. She said that they threw away about one-half of their "stuff" and now they are looking for their "stuff". Those of us who have moved many times in our lifetimes, know about "stuff"! Shaun and Tawny still have many friends from their college days in Minneapolis. Shaun actually applied for his new position on-line through the Carlton University Alumni's web site. He is going to work for Ultralingua (a dictionary company) as a Software Engineer, Analyst I. They have already secured a new place to live and will shortly be calling Minneapolis "home". Also stomping grounds were at Lakeside Terrace. He had many “grandmothers” who would baby-sit him while mom Cheryl assisted father Doc. Reynolds at the clinic during the day. Some of these people were: Katie Kashevarof, Emma Josefsen, Alice Nutbeem, Nic “Fly Fly” traveling with them is their black and white cat, Finnegan.

We Seldovians wish you the very best in your new life together in Minnesota.
