rehabilitation.

Eligible borrowers must: Be a US citizen, unable to obtain financial assistance from other sources, lack personal resources to meet their needs, occupy a single family dwelling, be low income, have the financial capacity to incur the loan and have a credit history which indicates willingness and ability to meet loan obligations. Asset limits also apply.

A sample of income limits for Seldovia, Port Graham and Nanwalek are as follows:

- 1 member household $41,300,
- 2 member $47,200,
- 3 member $53,100.

By installing additional insulation, replacing windows and/or doors, installing energy efficient heating systems or building an artic entry to keep out the cold would help save heating costs by reducing the consumption of fuels and electricity.

Anyone wishing additional information can contact the Kenai USDA Service Center at (907) 283-6640 ext 4 or visit their website at www.rurdev.usda.gov/rhs. Their Loan Specialist's staff will gladly help you through the process.
