SmallSchool Reigns

The junior high volleyball team made quite an upset at the small school regions last weekend. Due to an incident the volleyball team lost one of their six players, leaving them with only five. This could have meant that they would not have been able to go to the final tournament, except the Kenai Peninsula School District agreed to let the team compete one man short. This meant the girls would be going against teams of six, with a very large disadvantage. Though the team didn't bring home the first place plaque, they did bring home the second place trophy.

The tourney consisted of six teams. Chapman, Cook Inlet Academy, Homer "B" and "C", Nikolaevsk, Ninilchik, and Seldovia; the bracket was set in a round robin, where everyone played everyone. The only strange thing that did not fit was instead of playing two out of three games in a match, each team played two games against every team no matter what. So these were technically not real matches. The matches started Friday and continued all day Saturday.

On Friday the Sea Otter girls played Homer "B" and Ninilchik. In the first game the Sea Otters' split the wins with Homer "B" 1-1. They then stepped it up and beat Ninilchik 2-0. On Saturday the Otters' played the other three remaining teams. The Chapman game was first with the Otters winning 2-0. Then, they played Homer "C", again taking the match 2-0. The final game was the decisive game. The Otters' were 9-1 and CIA was 10-0. If the Otters won both games they would take first. They played like they owned that court during the first game, beating CIA by ten points. The second game however, took a turn for the worse when things between a couple of players went sour and affected the team as a whole. This resulted in the Otters losing the last game, seeding them second in the Small School Tourney.
