What a Great Halloween Carnival!

Photos and recap by Jenny Chissus

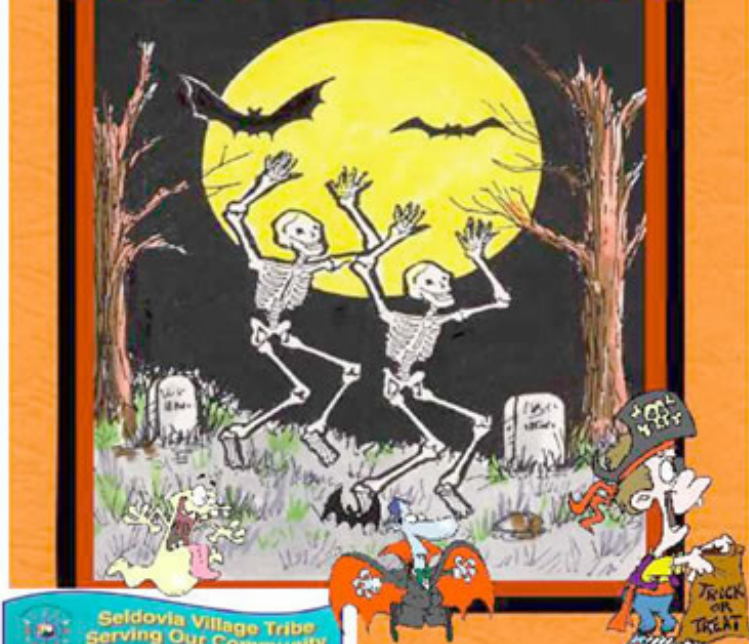

Thanks to all the folks who donated cakes for the Cake Walk - it is always a huge success and fun to see all the wonderfully decorated cakes!

Halloween Carnival 2009

Date: October 30th, 2009

Time: 7pm to 9pm

Place: SBE School

Seldovia Village Tribe
Serving Our Community

Each year, the school works together with SVT to put on our Annual Halloween Carnival for the community. This is the perfect opportunity to put on your favorite costume and enjoy the "treats" of Halloween without the cold! The kids show off their costumes in a parade and SVT handed out Treat bags that were full of goodies!

This year, the carnival was from 7pm to 9pm in the Ottertorium We have always set up the gym for this event, but they opted for a more intimate setting in this area - and it really worked out nicely! There was plenty of room for games and wandering, visiting and admiring the costumes on babies and adults!

There was lots of good FOOD.....pizza, fresh pumpkin pie, caramel apples, popcorn, fudge, snow cones and more good things to eat at the concession stand!!

Kids and Adults alike enjoyed the games that were offered at the event and sponsored by the following groups:

BOOSTER CLUB:

Paddle Wheel, Lollipop Pull, Concessions

LIFEGUARDS: Trick or Treat

CLOSE UP: Fish Pond

SENIORS: Cake Walk, Balloon Darts

SOPHOMORES: Mini Free Throw

Thank you for joining us for our fun filled evening and the chance to visit with friends, enjoy dressing up and seeing all the kids in costumes!

Thanks for supporting our kids!

FRESHMEN: Pin the Wart on the Witch's
Nose and Ping Pong Toss
7-8th GRADES: Duck Pond
SVT: Snow Cones
